History

Kennedy Motorcycles have been around since 1949, when the late James Kennedy Snr, a native of Carrigallen, Co Leitrim moved to Drogheda and opened a cycle repair shop at 15a Dyer Street.

His interest in cycles and motorbikes grew and he was often seen around Drogheda on his pride and joy, a 500 CC BSA, M20, ex army motorcycle now on display in the shop. However it wasn't until September 1960, that James Kennedy bought his own shop, then located at 14 Dyer Street.

Today over 60 years later, Kennedys are still in Dyer Street at No 6 Dyer Street. They are getting bigger and better, the business is now run by Jimmy, with 3rd generation James managing the shop, Kennedy Motorcycles has moved into the 21st century.
